

Strong Adjectives / Extreme Adjectives

Adjectives are words that describe the qualities of something. There are different kinds of adjectives in English. Adjectives can be gradable and non-gradable, which is called extreme adjectives. Gradable adjectives mean different degrees or levels of the quality. We can use these adjectives with some adverbs (like a bit, very, really, extremely, quite, etc.) to show the degrees of the quality. Example: for "Difficult", we can say a little bit difficult, rather difficult, very difficult, or extremely difficult

Example: big → huge (means very big)

beautiful
ugly dirty
good
bad
happy
angry
hungry
tired
funny
big small
fat
afraid
cold
hot
clean
crowded
long (time)
hot (temperature)
old
interesting
tasty
sad
dirty
surprised

Strong Adjectives / Extreme Adjectives

Adjectives are words that describe the qualities of something. There are different kinds of adjectives in English. Adjectives can be gradable and non-gradable, which is called extreme adjectives. Gradable adjectives mean different degrees or levels of the quality. We can use these adjectives with some adverbs (like a bit, very, really, extremely, quite, etc.) to show the degrees of the quality. Example: for "Difficult", we can say a little bit difficult, rather difficult, very difficult, or extremely difficult

Example: big → huge (means very big)

beautiful	gorgeous
ugly	awful
dirty	filthy
good	excellent
bad	terrible
happy	delighted
angry	furious
hungry	starving
tired	exhausted
funny	hilarious
big	enormous
small	tiny
fat	obese
afraid	terrified
cold	freezing
hot	boiling
clean	spotless
crowded	packed
long (time)	endless
hot (temperature)	boiling old	ancient
interesting	fascinating
tasty	delicious
sad	miserable
dirty	filthy
surprised	amazed